Mr. C. L. Whelpley, of the pension office, left the city last evening for Boston, on business connected with the department.

The argument in the case of Campbell & Eslin was continued before the court of claims yesterday, and will be concluded to-morrow.

Yesterday was the festival of the conversion of St. Paul, and was observed last evening by an excellent choral service by the surpliced choir in the Church of the Incarnation.

William McDonald was arrested yesterday while endeavoring to dispose of an imitation gold ring, and gave his personal bonds to leave the city inside of twenty-four hours. A deed has been placed on record from Thomas J. Brady and wife to Theodore N. Vail, of Massachusetts, of the house and lots of the former near Farragut square—part of original lot 1 and part of sublet 8, square 164—the consideration being $125,000.

Coroner Patterson yesterday made an investigation of the circumstances of the accident which resulted in the death of Thomas Flynn on last Tuesday by being thrown from his wagon from collision with a coal cart, and gave a certificate of death by accident.

gave a certificate of death by accident.

The unlicensed real estate brokers and agents have been directed to appear in the police court to-day for trial. The commissioners have decided that it would be unjust to those who have procured licenses to continue the cases against the others any longer.

There will be a literary and musical entertainment at the Metropolitan M. E. church, corner of Four-and-a-half and C streets, this evening for the object of purchasing a new library for the Sunday school. The services of some of the best local talent have been secured, and the programme will be highly attractive.

Yesterday warrants were issued against Catharine Dentz, John H. Campbell, Michael Dorsch, Frederick W. Wyrich, Nathaniel Branson, John Winkler, Michael Doyle, and Mary A. Roth, for selling beer at retail by the stovepipe when they had only wholesale dealers' licenses.

The Washington Codet corn will hold a re-dealers' licenses.

The Washington Cadet corp will hold a reception at their armory a week from to-night, and from the fact that the commettee of arrangements include Lieut. Jno. A. Perry, Sergeants U. J. Brooks and Jno. H. Saunders, Corporal Richard Laws, Cadets James B. Wright, Jno. R. Brown, and Jno. A. Payne, a most enjoyable time may be anticipated.

Judge Snell proposes to break up the habit of crowding the sidewalk in front of the police court, and yesterday directed the officer on duty to arrest such persons. Prosecuting Attorney Moore suggested that usually in the crowd there were a number of "ease brokers," who hunt up cases for lawyers and the judge.
He said they would be also attended to, and when bronght up be summarily dealt with.

Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, the cloquent champion of prohibition, and one of the finest speakers of the Woman's National Christian Temperanee union, will be in this city next Tuesday, and speak, at 7:30 p. m., in Wesley chapel, Fifth and F streets northwest. Open to all. Mrs. Foster always has the courage of her convictions, and carries a force in her arguments which even her opponents cannot gainsay.

An Agreeable Entertainment. A pleasant musical soirce took place at the residence of Prof. Alexander S. De Wolowski, No. 1116 M street northwest, corner of Twelfth, the other evening, when his most advanced pupils in vocal music and the piano assembled fer an agreeable entertainment, and exhibited the proficiency they had attained under his new and facile system of instruction. The most noteworthy and gratifying portion of the soirce was the presentation to him of a magnificent diamond ring. One of the professor's lady pupils was deputed to make the presentation on behalf of her companions. This she did in most fitting and appropriate terms, congratulating him on the success he had achieved in making the study of music rather an amusement than a task, and thanking him for his untiring energy and perseverance. The whole affair was in the best taste, and redounded alike to the credit of master and pupils. Prof. De Wolowski will soon begin his last courses before his departure for Europe. Norfolk Steamers.

The traveling public is informed that the substantial and commodious steamer Jane Moseley, of the Inland and Scaboard Coasting company line, is making regular tri-weekly trips to Norfolk and Fortress Monroe. She will leave her wharf, foot of Sixth street, this afternoon at 5 o'clock, and at same hour Mon-day, Wednesday, and Friday until further notice. On her return trip Saturday, twenty-seventh instant, she will bring up with her the German Opera company, numbering forty members, making the trip particularly pleas-ant on that account. ant on that account.

Free Lectures To-Night.

The theological lectures, delivered every Friday evening by Dr. T. S. Childs in the lecture room of the Young Men's Christian association, are attracting a good audience. The lectures are free, and to-night the subject is "Man; His Origin and Original State." These lectures hold one hour, 6 to 7. At 8 o'clock Dr. E. M. Schaeffer will begin a course of eight free medical lectures, continued each Friday evening at same hour. Subject to-night, "The Circulation of the Blood." illus-
